BULLETIN NEWS LETTERS FROM ITS BROADENING FIELD

LETTERS FROM TOWNS IN TWO STATES

The Business and Social Life of Every Town and Settlement Reflected in These Columns.

NEW LONDON COUNTY.

SALEM.

Central District School, Taught by Miss Laura Peabody, Closes Most Successful Year-West Road School Miss Edna D. Rogers Teacher, Also Closes-Notes

The Central district school closed a most successful year on Friday afternoon, Juns 4. During the last few days of school the teacher, Miss Laura Peabody, conducted oral reviews of the different branches covered during the year. The knowledge which her pupils had gained in the common branches reflected great credit upon teacher and pupils. A number of parents and friends of the pupils were present during the reviews and all expressed themselves pleased and surprised at the ability of the pupils. Miss Katie Allen was awarded a prize for faithful study. Miss Celia A. Rathbone won the spelling prize. The honor pupils who were not absent during the term were Clarence Bennett and Clyde A. Ray. Miss Laura Peabody returned to her home in Waterford for the summer vacation. The Central district school closed

Sunday Services. At the morning service in the Congregational church the pastor, Miss Millen, spoke very earnestly upon the subject Christ's Perfect Understanding

The session of the Sunday school

The session of the Sunday school which followed the service was in charge of Assustant Superintendent Mrs. F. R. Bailey. The class winner of the banner was announced to be the young girls' class taught by Mrs. William Darling.

In the afternoon at I c'clock a very interesting service was held in the Salem Baptist church. Rev. B. D. Remington, pastor of the Colchester Baptist church, delivered a most earnest and eloquent sermon. He will conduct a service in the Salem church on Sunday, June 29, at 8 o'clock.

Children's Day Postponed.

Children's Day Postponed. The Children's day exercises which were to be given in the Congregational church next Sunday have been post-poned to Sunday, June 29, because of the serious illness of Joshua P. Clark. Busy Meeting of Grange. The last meeting of the Salem grange was a busy one. An interesting programme was presented. Plans were made for the meeting of the New London Pemona on Thursday, June 17. West Road School Closes.

West Road School Closes.

The West Road school, taught by Miss Edna D. Rogers, closed with appropriate exercises on Tuesday. Miss Rogers has been a faithful and painstaking teacher and has won the affectation of her pupils. The following programme was well carried out; Song, America, by school; recitations, They Didn't Think, by Henry Tew Little Stara, by Alice Purcell; Curfew Must Not Ring Tonight, by John Rathbun; Bingan on the Rhine, by Meyer Chafetz; Helping Mamma, by Maud Congdon; Vacation Song, by school; brecitations, Pride of Battery B. by Jacob Chafetz; Helping Papa, by John Pursell; Little Raindrops, by Ruth Tew; Vacation, by Louis Chafetz; Goodby, Old School Room, by Bertha Tew. B. W. Jenkine then made a few compilmentary remarks, after which sandwiches, cake and fruit were served and a delightful afternoon was spent by pupils and friends. by pupils and friends.

Graduates at Alfred University Friends of Miss Maude D. Congdon, formerly of this place, recently received invitations to the commencement exercises at Alfred university, Alfred, N. Y., Thursday, June 10. Miss Congdon is a member of the graduating

The ladies of the grange had a merhousecleaning at Grange hall on Tuesday.

Joshua P. Clark, the well known proprietor of Clark's grist and sawmill of this place, was taken suddenly and se-glously ill last Friday night and is now in a critical condition from a complivation of diseases.

Miss Millen has been quite fil during the week in consequence of a severe

Mrs. Joseph Beckwith of Chesterfield was a recent caller in town. Thomas S. Clark of Colchester is in gown this week, called here by the ser-gious illness of his brother. Mrs. George Penbody of Waterford was in town last Friday.

Mrs. Elijah Herrick and Mrs. E. L.
Spencer were callers in Colchester this

Mrs. S. Gifford, Miss May Gifford and

Mrs. 5. Gifford, and any Ghord and Mrs. 5. Gifford, and Say Ghord and Mrs. 5. Gifford and Mrs. 6. Gifford

Mrs. M. R. Siegfried was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Mor-gan on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren E. Rathbone re-cently called on Mr. and Mrs. John Rathbone of Leffingwell.

Earle G. Morgan and wife and daugh-ter Gladys of East Lyme spent several days this week with Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Morgan.

Charles S. Ray and wife last week

Charles S. Ray and wife last week when the day and wife last week epent a day in Norwich.

Mrs. F. L. Fletcher and son Allen wisited friends in Colchester this week. Miss Katie Allen, who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Houston during the past year and attending school in town, on Tuesday returned to her home in Colchester.

her home in Colchester.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ray spent last Friday with friends in Norwich.

George Orrin Avery has purchased a farm in Bozrah and expects to move there soon. Mr. Avery and his daughters, Misses Anabel and Lena, will be missed by a large circle of friends.

Miss Amy E. Rix was recently a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs.
Winfield Hanney.
Charles H. Balley of Charles C.

Winfield Hanney.
Charles H. Bailey of Chestnut Grove farm, Bozrah, was a guest of his brother, Robert A. Bailey, on Tuesday.
William Standish and Miss Edith Standish of Colchester were visitors at Hillsde farm during the week.
Ambrose Darling was a business railer in Colchester on Wednesday.
Thomas Peabody of Norwich is spending a few days with friends in 20 km.

Harry A. Rathbun was a caller in olchester during the week. E. J. Standish spent Sunday at the. home of his parents in Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Ray spent Westnesday at the home of their son, & S.

Ray.
Mrs. Isaac Schumingkier has returned home after several weeks' treatment in the Hartford hospital. She is still in very poor health.

Johnny-Why do you want your Tather to be a detective? Freddy-Because a gumshoo wouldn't hurt so.!

OLD MYSTIC.

The Late Benjamin F. Lowis of Norwich Was a Long Resident Here-17 New Members and Four Baptisms at Baptist Church-Graduation Exercises of High School Tonight.

Deacon Benjamin F. Lewis, whose Deacon Benjamin F. Lewis, whose death occurred Tussday at the home of his son, Penjamin F. tewis, Jr. of Norwich, was a long time resident of this village, owning and living on the place previously owned by the late George Langworthy. Mr. Lewis was a deacon in the Methodist Episopai church, and his many friehds are saddened to learn of his death.

Unique Text. Charles Q. Eldredge of Riverview received Tuesday night from Rev. Herbert Bacon Hutchins, formerly pastor of the First Baptist church, Old Mystic, now pastor of the First Baptist church, Lewiston, Me., an engraved postal card, upon which was the following text, used by Pastor Hutchins for the basis of his sermon last Sunday:

day:
"God Gives Us Our Relatives, But,
Thank God, We Can Choose Our

Mr. Edredge's relation to Rev. Mr. Hutchins places him where he would have enjoyed the sermon. Graduation Exercises of High School

The graduation exercises of the Old Mystic High school will be held Sarurday evening, June 12th, at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the Baptist church. Principal, Dana Taylor Gal-iup, class of 1909; Emma Avery Wit-liams, Ruth Allen.

Newsy Nuggets. The Ladies' Aid society of the Bap-tist church met Wednesday evening with Mrs. William A. Burrows.

Dean Rockwell Wickes, Yale Divinity school '99, has returned to his home in Chicago, after three days' visit to his aunt and cousin, Mrs. Jane H. Dean and Miss Mary Harris Dean of Mein arrest.

Main street.

Miss Sarah H. Fellows and Mrs. John
R. Babcock were guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Crumb and mother, Mrs. Louisa Crumb of Groton

Heights.
Mrs. Conrad has returned to Providence after a visit to her sister, Mrs.
Perry H. Eldredge.
Miss Grave Denison Wheeler of the Rood district, Stonington, was a recent guest of relatives at the Dean homestead, in Main street.
Mrs. A. Zephaniah Brown of Pleasant
View Ladvert was calling Thes.

LAUREL GLEN.

School Closes This Week With Entertainment in Chapel-Local Items.

Rev. L. F. Randolf of Hopkinton held services in the local chapel Sun-day afternoon at 2 o'clock. About 30 were present. There was a prayer meeting at the home of James Maine on Wednesday evening of last week with Rev. J. H. Adams of Pendleton Hill as leader.

Mr. and Mrs. Adams stayed all night with Mr. and Mrs. Maine and called on friends in the neighborhood the next

Mr. and Mrs. Maine riends in the neighborhood the day.

Charlie Holdredge of Pawtucket visited with his parcets, Deadon and Mrs. C. P. Holdredge, recently.

Mrs. Carrie Wheeler, who was ill all last week, is able to teach and will finish and close school at the end of this week for the summer vacation. There will be an entertainment by the school in the Laupel Glen chapel Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. James Sheffield of Woodville, R. L. Miss Susan J. Maine and John Main of Ashaway caught a fine string Wednesday.

John Kilkenny of Pawcatuck was the guest of his sister, Mrs. R. D. Maine, and Mrs. G. A. Stoddard.

Miss Mabel Bill is again in charge of the Rest house, in this village. Next of the Rest house, in this village.

HAMBURG. Notes of the Week.

Mrs. Carrie Granger went to Groton Tuesday to attend a patient. Mrs. M. C. Bill and children, Thelma and Hamilton, are visiting in Deep River. J. W. Martin has the contract to do be repairing of the Grange hall. Lealie Rogers of North Lyme was a caller in town Sunday.

Mrs. William Anderson entertained
Mrs. Apgar of Deep River over Sun-

Miss Alice Huntley entertained her friend, Miss Martin, of Saybrook, over

Hal Martin was a visitor at the Golden Spur Sunday.

Mrs. H. L. Reynolds and daughter and Mrs. Harold Reynolds were visitors in Hartford Wednesday.

Mrs. James Wood of Chester was a collect town. caller in town Tuesday.

Mrs. May Daniels has been among

The L. B. society met at the church

WARRENVILLE.

Household Goods of Rev. and Mrs. G. C. Chappell Taken to Montville.

William Phillips and family were at William Philips and W. L. Durkee's Sunday.

W. L. Durkee's Sunday.

On Thursday of last week two large loads of goods were moved for Rev. G. C. Chappell to Williamntic en route Pay, and Mrs. Chap-

G. C. Chappell to Willimantic an route to Montville. Rev. and Mrs. Chappell took up their residence in Montville Monday, June 7.

Mrs. John Miller hus been visiting her sister, Mrs. O. D. Baker.

Caroline Lawton has been spenjing a few days with Mrs. Ralph Church and Mrs. Carrie Hattin.

Mrs. Joe Brunell of Burnside called on Mrs. E. L. James Monday of last week.

week.

Mrs. R. H. Wright conducted the Sunday morning services at the Bap tist church in this village.

A. E. James and George O. Balch were in Williamantic Friday.

The district school closed this week. The C. E. society and friends gave Mr. and Mrs. Isalah Hale a surprise brate their 37th wedding anniversary, and presented them a Morris chair, plates and cups and saucers

ASHWILLETT.

Large Attendance at Funeral of Lucius Kinney - Automobilists Enjoyed a Pleasure Trip.

Many soldiers attended the funeral of the late Lucius Kinney, held Mon-day afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Sheridan Burdick in Volresidence of Sheridan Burdick in Vol-untown. The Rev. Ell Dewhurst, pas-tor of the Baptist church, officiated, and there was a large attendance of relatives and friends. Local soidlers acted as bearers, and burial was in the Rixtown cemetery. O. S. Rix, un-dertaker was in oborge of the argument dertaker, was in charge of the arrangements.

William B, Clark of Wauregan spent Sunday in Ashwillett, the guest of relatives.

W. W. Biffings was at his home here over Sunday, from Plainfield, where he Clarence Thompson of Westerly is bearding at the home of Amasa Morgan, in this place.

S. P. Eggleston has sold 139 acres of land and also a house and born to New London parties.

Mrs. Henry E. Bendell is seriously Mrs. Henry E. Randall is seriously

Paul Russo of New Haven made a trip to thic place Tuesday. Annual Meeting Baptist Union.

The annual meeting of the Stoning-ton Baptist union will be held at Newark next week Wednesday and Malcolm Thompson of Pendleton Hill was in this place buying up stock the past week. W. F. Morgan is recovering from an attack of the mumps. John Vevia is confined to his home with the same There were several parties here Sun day in automobiles on a country pleasure trip. They were from Nor-wich, Jewett City and Westerly. All of the visiting parties were evidently enjoying themselves hugely.

PENDLETON HILL.

Miss Mary Chapman's School Closes Today-Delegates Appointed to Noank-Meeting of Baptist Union As-

Thompson prothers have purchased pair of horses of M. E. Thompson. Russell Cooke was a caller in Westerly Sunday.

The weekly prayer meeting was held Friday evening at the home of Erastus. Mrs. Jennie Thompson and son Irvwere at Jewett City last week to her brother, Charles D. Bab-V. Avery and family were callers at J. J. Thompson's Sunday.

Rev. J. Howard Adams held a prayer meeting at Nathan Main's Wednesday evening at Laurel Glen.

The school on the hill taught by Miss Mary Chapman closes Saturday. Delegates to Stonington Union Asso-

Delegates were appointed Sunday to represent our church at the Stonington Union association to be held at Noank. They were Rev. J. H. Adams and wife. Descon E. E. Coon and W. L. Main and

Mrs. Jennie Thompson and sons were in Hopkinton City Monday afternoon to attend the birthday celebration of Mrs. William V. Avery. Charles Hilliard and Miss Louise

Thompson were callers at Main's at Voluntown Sunday

Lyman Main, Sr., and Lyman Main, Jr., of Willimantic were Sunday visit-ors at the home of W. L. Main. Edwin Main is working on the road. Mr. and Mrs. George Phillips of Hope Valley were recent visitors at W. L.

CLARK'S FALLS.

Eighteen Pickerel Weighed 26 Pounds Rest House Will Again Be in Charge of Miss Mabel Bill.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Sisson of Ashaway were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Stoddard recently.

Richard Maine and son, Wilson, and Elmer Maine, have been enjoying an outing of a few days at Pleasant View.

BOZRAH.

Rev. A. H. Wilcox to Preach to Young People and Children-Small Notes of the Week.

Sunday June 13, Rev. Asher H. Wilcox will preach to the young people and children of the Congregational church. On June 20 he will preach a sermon about A Witch at Endor, as found in Samuel xxviii. 7. This sermon is repeated by request and is very interesting. Services begin at 11 o'clock.

s On account of the rain only three from Bozrah attended the Norwich grange Wednesday evening.

Mrs. F. W. Abell is at her home on Bear Hill. The first of the fellowship meetings will be held Wednesday, June 16, with the church in Franklin.

Mrs. J. Austin Gager and Mrs. C. A. Gager, Jr., spent Friday with Mrs. Edwin E. Lathrop.

LIBERTY HILL.

Mrs. Addie C. Tucker returned home from St. Joseph's hospital, at Willi-mantic, Saturday, somewhat improv-

There will be a children's day con-There will be a children's day concert next Sunday at 3 p. m.

Miss Flora Burrill of Maine is visiting her father, J. H. Burrill.

The state president of the Christian Endeavor society will be in attendance at the C. E. meeting next Sunday evening, June 13.

Fred Dayall with help to make

Fred Davoll, with help, is making occuph and attractive repairs on the purch steeple, which was in bad con-Fred Davoll

Master Robert Goodrich caught a fox last week, for which he received $1 bounty. The district school closed this week.

GALES FERRY.

Auxiliary Holds Closing Meeting for the Year - Cottagers Arriving-Church Interests,

Mrs. Sarah Colver and her daughter, Miss Kate & Colver, entertained the members of the local auxiliary of the Woman's Home Missionary society with other guests at their home at the navy yard Tuesday afternoon. Out of town guests present were Mrs. Frank Chapman and Mrs. Robert Chapman of Groton and Mrs. Cubits Gates of New London. The literary programme opened with devotional exercises and readings from leaflets on missionary topics. Mrs. Thomas Latham, president of the auxiliary, presented an appeal to the women of the Methodist Episcopal church and Miss Sarah Latimer gave a reading on The New Fronmer gave a reading on The New Fron-tier. Gleams of Light on the New Trail was the subject of a reading by Mrs. Harmon Perkins. The Juvenile Court was considered by Miss Laura Perkins. As this was the last meeting for the year the mits hoves which had for the year, the mite boxes which had been distributed to the members and friends of the society were opened. The next meeting will be held in September, when the society will reorganize. A pleasant social hour with refreshments closed the session.

Village and Cottage Notes.

David S, Adams of New Haven was in the village Saturday.

Alias Amelia Mathewson returned Saturday evening from a week's visit with her sister, Mrs. Mary Scranton.

Mrs. Herman Wulf have also arrived for the season at their cottage.
Caterer Phelps of Boston, with his assistants, arrived at Red Top last week to see that the quarters were in readiness for the arrival of the Harvard oarsmen the last of this week or the first of next. The launch John Harvard arrived from Boston Thursday.

Mrs. Fannie Rogers of New London sailed on relatives at Stoddard's wearf and Allyn's Point Sunday.
Frederick Webb and family of New ondon were visitors at their cottage here Sunday. Quarterly Conference.

Quarterly Conference.

There was an attendance of nine at the first quarterly conference of the M. E. church Wednesday evening, atthough the storm prevented the members of the choir from holding the rehearsal of the Children's day music, appointed for that evening. District Superintendent Rev. J. H. Newland of Norwich presided. The usual reports were given and ordered on record. The work of the Laymen's Missionary movement was presented by Rev. arr. work of the Laymen's Missionary movement was presented by Rev. Mr. Newland and C. E. Colver was elected as representative of the Gales Ferry

Miss Maud Houch of Norwich completed her second year of teaching in the Lester school district last week and Mrs. Charles Lewis of Cen-

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis of Central Village, who purchased one of the Potter cottages on the bluff last summer, opened the cottage Monday.

Miss Elizabeth Corwin, who has spent several weeks with Mrs. Lucy Hurlbutt, returned to New London recently.

is the past of Panama, arrived has week to spend his vacation with relatives at his home in the village.

Charles H. Brown of Norwich, who returned last week from his annual trip abroad, has been making improvements the past few days about the cortages which he built last winter near the station.

he station.

Hugh J. Duffy of the naval station with friends from New York, arrived at the Hurlbutt residence the first of the week. Mr. Duffy leased the place a short time ago and has been having improvements made on the property.

LEONARD BRIDGE

Paster Attends Lebanon Ordination-Boston Fishing Party at Liberty

The Rev. E. C. Ingalls of Colchester Proceed in Exeter church Sunday in exchange with the Rev. A. J. Park.

Mrs. F. J. Brown and Mrs. E. H.

Mr-Call were recent visitors in Hart-

Mr. L. M. Niles has returned from a week's visit with her daughter, Mrs. George Hovey, of East Hampton Mrs. Dwight Spaulding has gone to Flast Norwalk for several weeks' visit with her daughter, Mrs. E. B. Robert-son

E. P. Kneeland and daughter Lavinia vere in Willimantic Wednesday. Rev. A. J. Park attended the ordina-ion and installation exercises of Rev. 2. B. Smith at the Brick church on

Mrs. C. J. Holmes was in Norwich John, Kneeland spent Sunday with his brother, Leroy Kneeland, of Cov-

Samuel Johnson of New Haves was visiting at Judge A. G. Kneeland's and G. M. Williams' on June 4th. Schools in the town closed Friday for the summer vacation.

Mr. Curtis of Boston, a member of the Liberty club, and a party of friends were fishing in the trout brooks during the week, the trip from Boston being made in Mr. Curtis' automobile.

LEFFINGWELL.

Special Service for Children's Day-Local Notes. Dr. Alfred Richards of Norwich is spending a few weeks at C. F. Palm-er's for the benefit of his health in-stead of Mrs. Richards, as stated last Interesting Roll Call—Tweaty-four Species of Native Orohids Named. Saturday.

Charles Browning and Wallace Potter of Montville have been working at The regular meeting of Ledyard grange, which was held Saturday eve-ning, June 5, was well attended in spite of the had weather. The lec-L. Palmer's the past week.
Mrs. Clarence Leffingwell and son charles of Norwich spent Sunday with spite of the bad weather. The lecturer's hour was made interesting and helpful, members answering to the roll call by giving some new or better way of doing farm and house work, which brought out a lively discussion and many questions.

A paper was read by B. T. Avery on Our Native Orchids. He named twenty-four species that he was familiar with, twenty-one of these growing in Ledyard. Among them two or three Forrest Leffingwell and family.

Mr. Stephens and Fred Strickland of New London were guests at the nome of Leland Palmer Sunday.

Mrs. J. G. Ward has been spending everal days with her father at Ver-Mrs. Thomas Leffingwell called on her sister-in-law. Mrs. Fred Gallup, at the Backus hospital Sunday. Harry Palmer of Montville was the guest of his parents in this place Sun-

Mr. and Mrs. John I. Ross were guests of relatives at Montville Sunday.

There will be a Children's day concert at the Baptist church Sunday evening at 7:39 o'clock. The teeth of a squirrel will pene trate desper than those of a dog-

Yale-Harvard Oarsmen on Thames

The Crews on Their Annual Visit—A New Londoner who Has Honors Thrust Upon Him-The Will of Sebastian D. Lawrence will be Probated Next Week-An Excitement in Church-The Eagles are Coming.

The late Sebastian D. Lawrence has provided for the sick and poor of New condon, and his saying of several cars ago, that New London would be benefited by the Lawrences having ived in the city has truly come to size. He has not only provided that the company of provided for the sick and poor of New London, and his saying of several years ago, that New London would be benefited by the Lawrences having lived in the city has truly come to pass. He has not only provided that his mension hone should be converted into an emergency hospital, but has left $500,000 for a free hospital to be built on land owned by him in Moniank avenue, and which extends from the water front in Pequot avenue to Montank avenue, thence to Ocean avenue and on to the Waterford line. It is possible that so much of the land as is not required for hospital purposes will be converted into a public park.

He has left $50,000 for a new and modern almshouse and a fund of $5.,000 for Tanaksgiving and Fourth of July dinners to the inmates.

Mr. Lawrence made generous bequests to the Episcopal church, in which he held membership, and showed his liberalism by leaving $6,000 for a steeple of $t. Mary's Star of the Sea (Roman Catholic) church, thus completing that edifice.

During his lifetime Mr. Lawrence gave to the city the grand soldlers and sallors monument on the Parade, and also the firemen's monument in front of the cid court house.

Mr. Lawrence was New London's richest resident, and therefore was able to and did more for his native city.

The firemen's monument in front of the cid court house.

Mr. Lawrence was New London's richest resident, and therefore was able to and did more for his native city.

Mrs. George F. Dean is improving from injuries received by a fail at her home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Wuif and family of Norwich opened their cottage on the bluff for the season Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Wulf have also arrived for the season at their cottage.

Caterer Phelps of Boston, with his assistants, arrived at Red Top last seen by this list:

semi-public institutions, as will be seen by this list:

The Bulkeley school, which was founded by Leonard Bulkeley, who left an endowment of $25,000 in 1849, and which was increased $16,000 by the late Asa Otts, $5,000 by the late Henry P. Haven, and by George F. Tinker, who gave about $12,000 for the construction and furnishing of an addition to the building.

The Williams Memorial Institute, the foundation of which was provided for in the will of Mrs. Harriet Peck Williams as a memorial to her son.

and is not responsible for what is said of him in some newspapers.

The cadets are a section of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of Connecticut, whose field day is to be held in Danbury next week. It has been erroneously announced that General Lawless is chairman of the committee of aramgements for this field day, and that it is under the auspices of the Tierney Cadets. As a master of fact, these held days of necessety are managed by committees of the sociaties in the city where the field day is held, and state officers are occasionally given honorary positions on the arrangements committee, but General Lewless is not an officer of the Catholic Total Abstinece Union of Connecticut. for in the will of Mrs. Harrier Williams as a memorial to her son, Thomas W. Williams, 2d, a whaling merchant of New London, who died in

The Manual Training school, founded by William H. Chapman, who gave originally $160,000 and has added to originally $100,000 and has added to that large sum since.

The Oid Women's Home, founded by Dr. Seth Smith. In his will Mr. Lawrence provides for the admission of two women a year to this institution.

The Memorial hospital, founded by Jonahan N. Harris, whose partial endowment has been added to materially several wealthy and generous resi-The New London public library, founded by Henry P. Haven, and his bequest increased by beneficiaries of his will.

And now comes the Lawrence Free hospital, the Lawrence Emergency hospital and the new almshouse.

To these could be added Williams park, the Memorial park and the addition to Riverside park by Senator Frank P. Brandegee and the late Mr. Lawrence Besides these there are many minor funds for specific charitable purposes. Yes, truly New London Sunnett.

Children's Day Services.

Rev. John Thompson, pastor of the children and their parents at the morning service Sunday. The Children's day exercises will be given by the Sunday achool at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Alfred E. Rogers, an engineer sits brown of spend his able purposes. Yes, truly, New London is better off for the Lawrences having lived here, and the same can be said of the generous rich who have gone before, and of those who are still with us, for the good they have done for the city and the residents thereof.

Although those in temporary charge of the estate of Sobastian D. Lawrence have considerately given to the public

LEDYARD.

Many Visit Lantern Hill.

Rev W. F. White took his text on

Henry A. Allyn has been staying several days in Hartford as the guest of his brother Senator Allyn. Mr. Allyn also went to Middletown. Arthur A. Beunett is confined to his Dogs Kill Sheep.

Lafayette Main has had more sheep killed by dogs. Two were found killed and he reports six sheep and four lambs missing. The town of Ledyard paid Mr. Main in March $182 for sheep

One Hundred and Forty-two Dogs

There have been 142 dogs registered by Town Clerk William I. Allyn in town up to June I, 1909.

A large number visited Lantern Hill Sunday.

At the Ayer farm, near Lantern Hill owned by Lafayette Main, are acres of scoke. It is so thick in some places that it could be moved with a scythe.

Personals.

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. William I. Allyn were in Mystic Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Hadley Gray of Nor-wich spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Gray. Mrs. Daniel Gray visited relatives in Stamford Wednesday.

GRANGE MEETING.

Ledyard. Among them two or three rare orchids. Habenaria orbiculata, Pogonia affinis and Achroanthes uni-folia. He illustrated his talk with plants in flowers and a number of mounted specimens.

Registered.

Dogs Kill Lafayette Main's Sheep

Sunday morning from Lev. 19-1 "Thou shalt not go up and down as have considerately given to the public reception, as there is a strong desire the information in brief containing the to create a good impression with principal public bequests, the exact strangers, and to push New London contents of the will are kept secret, as a convention city. ers select half of this number. William I Allyn, Henry A. Allyn, Bill liam I. Allyn, Henry A. Allyn, Bill-ings T. Avery, Warren Allyn, Charles A. Babcock, James H. Beiden, Frank W. Brewster, Albert Z. Brown, Wil-W. Brewster, Albert Z. Brown, Waliam N. Brown, Norman L. Brown, Samuet S. Brown, Frederick W. Burton, Henry E. Collins, Charles T. Daboll, Russell Gallup, Isaac G. Geer, Enos M. Gray, James B. Gray, William M. Gray, Daniel E. Gray, Charles

S. Hewitt Samuel E. Holdridge, Jeseph E. Holdridge, Nathan Holdridge, Charles H. Korn, Ernest Lamb, Austin S. Lamb, Edward E. Leeter, Calvin R. Main, Alonzo Main, Charles E.
Maynard, Frank G. Maynard, Dudley
C. Perkins, Gilbert E. Rogers, Henry
Sauer, Edmund Stoddard, James A.
Stoddard, Latham E. Smith, Frederick
W. Turner.

The annual school meeting in distale hearer among thy people; neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbor. I am the Lord."
There were 100 present at the Sunday

There is at least one man in New London who has had honors thrust upon him in a peculiar way. John J. Lawless, a Spanish war veteran, was appointed brigadier general of the Tlemey Cadets before there was even a battallon of the cadets organized. He has taken considerable interest in the growth of the cadets and is working hard to have a brigade under the com-hard to have a brigade under his com-mand in the near future. He bears his honors with characteristic modesty.

and is not responsible for what is said

According to a local newspaper there was excitement in a church last Sunday, for the report reads that after uttering a sharp groan a man sank to the floor and fell in a fit, and the man with his large frame was carried out into the air. After attention from a dector who happened to be in the congregation, the man was revived, aithough more than half an hour was required to restore him to normal condition. The report goes on to say that the incident created much excitement in the congregation, coming at a time in the congregation, coming at a time when the church was unusually quiet.

home with illness.

Mrs. Charles S. Hewitt visited relatives in Westerly Tuesday.

Justice S. E. Holdridge has been helpful in having the pension of L. C. Dean increased to $27 per month. The annual school meeting in dis-trict No. 4 will be held this (Satur-day) evening.

NORTH LYME.

Maynard-Miner Marriage - Fermer Paster Gone to Idahe.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jewstt, Miss Helen Jewett and Miss Bita Woodraff were Hartford visitors last Saturday. Miss Emily Stark was in Middletown Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Gallup and chil-dren of Laurel Hill attended services at the Ledyard Center church Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Lafayette Tooker, who There will be a children's concert have been out of town the past two months, are working at J. L. Reynolds'. Mrs. Lafayette Reynolds of Essex visited Mrs. James Beebs recently. by the Sunday school Sunday, the 13th, at 5 p. m.

WEDDING.

Maynard-Miner Herbert Maynard and Miss Lone

Herbert Maynard and Miss Lens Miner, both of this place were united in marriage at the Baptist parsonage last week Thursday afternoon. They will reside with the bride's parents until their new house near H. B. Maynard's is ready for them.

H. A. Gates is building a residence for Courtiand Maynard near Woodbridge farm.

News has been received of the arrival in Idaho of the Rev. J. A. Beake and family, who formerly resided here, going from here to Narragament Peir. Their many friends here wish them success in their new field of labor.

FITCHVILLE.

Eleven Local Young Men Join A. O. H. in Norwich-Various Items.

Miss Myrtle Clarke has returned to East Haddam after visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Charles

Mrs. Nelson D. Winchester is visiting lends in Webster, Mass. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Powers and Florer and Mrs. Clarence Holmes of chllorer and Mrs. Clarence Holmes of Charterfield were recent guests at the home of Mr and Mrs. Willis Chappell. Miss Mary Garvey of Norwich was a recent guest of Miss Essey Popham. Miss Mary Shea of Colohester has been spending a few days with Miss Mary McCarthy. Lieven of the young men from here vent to Norwich Tuesday evenue and been admitted to membership in the Second division, A. O. H.

Miss Eleanor Beckwith of Franklin is the guest of Miss Florence Geer. Jury List.

The following are the ones chosen was the largest in history, 145,000, by the selectmen for jurors for the 000 against $400,000,000 in 1907 and coming year. The jury commission-$300,000,000 in 1906.